Moonshine Cove Publishing, LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.ONLY BETSY CAN GET HIM HOME IN TIME; ONLY HE CAN BRING HER BACK BEFORE IT S TOO LATE. A grief-stricken candy-striper serving in a VA hospital following her brother s death in Viet Nam struggles to return home an anonymous veteran of the Great War against the skullduggery of a congressman who not only controls the hospital as part of his small-town fiefdom but knows the name of her veteran. A name if revealed would end his political ambitions and his fifty-year marriage. In its retelling of Odysseus journey, Revenants casts a flickering candle upon the charon toll exacted not only from the families of those who fail to return home but of those who do. . .Revenants will not fade quickly as less substantial novels do but will resonate in the reader s heart and mind for years to come. -Mark Spencer, Dean, School of Arts and Humanities, Professor of Creative Writing, Master of Fine Arts Program, University of Arkansas at Monticello. Kauffman writes with a divinely inspired descriptive power that draws you in and leaves an image in the reader s mind to muse upon long afterwards. -John H. Byk, Writers Alive. The true damage of war is . the damage done to the survivors and their families. . we see this damage portrayed movingly in his characters. This is a book you must read to see the truth of war. -Robert Mustin, Sam s Place: Stories. . . beautifully written . an intriguing story which will linger in the reader s mind far after the final page has been turned. -Florentine, Readiculously Peachy Blog. . .compelling . skillful character development ....
