It is a sad and sobering reality that trying drugs is no longer the exception among high school students. It is the norm. California Attorney General John Van De Kemp Los Angeles Times, April 30, 1986. When 13- to 18-year-olds were asked to name the biggest problems facing young people today, drugs led their list. The proportion of teens with this perception has risen steadily in recent years. No other issue approaches this level of concern. Four out of five teens believe current laws against both the sale and the use of drugs (including marijuana) are not strict enough. The Gallup Youth Surveys, 1985 and 1986. The foremost responsibility of any society is to nurture and protect its children. In America today, the most serious threat to the health and well-being of our children is drug use. For the past year and a half, I have had the privilege of teaching our children in the classrooms of this country. I have met some outstanding teachers and administrators and many wonderful children. I have taken time...
