The Method Of Acquiring First-hand Knowledge. The First Steps. HE time has now come for pointing out the way hy which each individual may investigate for himself all the facts with which we have dealt thus far in our study. As stated in the beginning, there are no special gifts bestowed upon any. All may know for themselves the truth concerning the pilgrimage of the soul, the past evolution and future destiny of the world, without being compelled to depend upon the veracity of another. There is a method whereby this valuable faculty may be acquired, and the earnest student qualify himself to investigate those super-physical realms; a method by which, if persistently followed, the powers of a God may be developed. A simple illustration may indicate the first steps. The very best mechanic is well-nigh helpless without the tools of his...
