CHRISTLICHE LEHRE VON DEN GESELLSCHAFTLICHEN TUGENDEN

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 106 pages. OCLC Number: 53196676 Excerpt: . . . 4 vigo rate this Committees leadership in promoting sound research on these impor- tant scientific questions. The prepared statement of Senator Snowe follows: REPAED TATEMENT OF ON LYMPIA NOWE ENATOR FROM AINE P S H. O J. S, U. S. S M Thank you, Mr. Chairman, for holding this timely hearing so that we can further understand the underlying science behind global climate variability from a distin- guished group of internationally renowned scientists. Mr. Chairman, last spring, Maine had a first-of-its- kind conference specifically to debate and discuss the impact of potential environmental climate change with state, national and international experts. For two days, over 150 people explored many questions. Are we leaving a human fingerprint on the Earths climate Why has the average temperature in Lewiston - where the conference was held - increased 3. 4 degrees F. over the last century Are we in a race against an uncertainty that none of us on this planet can afford to lose And, if so, what do we need to do to establish a sound scientific basis for making state, regional, national, and international re- source management and economic and policy decisions when considering global envi- ronmental change issues The answers to these questions are complex, and our ap- proach to them must continue to be through research and thorough analysis of the research results. It is important to continue to develop more accurate models led by common sci- entific research and thought so we might better predict what the impacts will be on plants and animals - including ourselves - under any changing climatic condi- tions. Concurrently, we must also evaluate the mitigation and adaptation strategies under consideration by policy makers in response to increasing amounts of...
