Hope Johnstone, Esq. Of Annandale, Vol. 9 At the Restoration of King Charles the Second, James Johnstone, the second Earl of Hartfell, in1661-2, obtained three new historical peerages of Earl of Annandale, Viscount Annand, and Lord Lochmaben, added to his already existing four peerages of Earl of Hartfell, Lord Johnstone of Lochwood, Moffatdale, and Evandale. His son, the second Earl of Annandale, inherited all these peerages, and was advanced by King William to the high rank of Marquis of Annandale. The Marquis held many public offices, and his official correspondence furnishes a large portion of the Annandale Collections. The first part of the present Report, Nos.1 to 101, deals with some of the family charters properly so called, but much more with a series of miscellaneous writs in the form of manrents, contracts, assurances of bodily safety, personal obligations, and others. These are selected from a number of similar writs as the best examples of their class, and, though they record no incidents of great moment, they are valuable as...
