Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Memoir on the Water Supply of the City of San Francisco The name of William J. McAlpine, of New York, is associated with some of the greatest engineering works on the eastern side of the continent. He was at one time Chief Engineer of the Erie Railway. He was also the engineer who constructed the Albany, N. Y. and Chicago Water Works. The reconstruction of the Erie Canal was also accomplished by him. He is regarded as one of the most eminent engineers now living. It might also have said that he is one of the four oldest members of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and was its President for many years; was for several years the only American member of the Institution of Civil Engineers of Great Britain, which is composed only of the most eminent Engineers of Europe; has been for many years, and is at present, a member of the Institution of Civil Engineers of France, Austria, and other European Societies; is a member of the American and Franklin Institutes, and of almost all of the scientific societies of the United States, etc; has been Engineer in Chief of the United States Navy, and constructed the U. S. stone graving dock at Brooklyn, N. Y. one of the most difficult engineering constructions in the United States; has been State Engineer and Surveyor-General of the State of New York, and was engaged on the New York State Canals in constructing the large impounding reservoirs for the Chenango Canal, and also the most important works on the enlargement of the Erie Canal, immense aqueducts, locks, etc; was the Assistant President and Chief...
