Degrees of Nonsense

By Brendan Walsh

Glasnevin Publishing Mrz 2012, 2012. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 229x152x12 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Irish Universities are in crisis! They are dangerously underfunded and have become crippled by micro-management and preposterous metrics. They have become effectively a boot-camp for the workplace and are promoted as being the only option for every Leaving certificate student. In addition there is the unrealistic expectation that they should react immediately to every political or economic whim and the, increasingly invasive, financing and regulatory framework imposed by national and European government. This book offers a long overdue and crucial discussion on the nature and purpose of education in Ireland. The contributions come from both Irish and UK based academics and argue that, increasingly, universities are being redefined and operated by interests outside the academy, leading to crass commercial understandings of what it is they do, but sadly ignorant of what is it they can do. Increasingly encouraged to offer 'courses' which the commercial market deems 'useful' one day but not the next, the university is more and more at the mercy of commercial and political interests. This book calls upon university managers and academics to re-consider...
