Serenity Press, Australia, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ella Kate Reeves is a dance and movement therapist and an accredited psychotherapist. When illness struck leaving her unable to dance she wrote. Life has seen many challenges come her way . She shares these challenges through her unique poetry collection. Testimonials Anne Geraghty (Author) Kate s poetry is not only original and beautiful it is challenging and visionary. Her poems take us into her journey and, as we read them, her struggles and surrenders become ours. She takes us with her into unfamiliar terrain, where her words themselves become elements of a living landscape. And Kate s journey is neither mundane nor predictable. She is living with challenges and demands that would floor many of us, yet she manages to transmute pain and loss into mystery and wonder. Kate s poetry performs the great alchemical transformation - from the chaos of human suffering into the creation of beauty, love, truth and a wisdom that knows there is something greater than pain and struggle, greater even than death. And this is the true beauty of her poetry. It shines with a light we all need. Thank you Kate - keep writing! Miranda Jay (Psychotherapist, Musician) Gritty. Real. Raw. Potent. Ella Kate Reeve s poetry merges her lived reality with divinity, catalyzing our own awakening. An alchemist of our times extracting the soulful essence of truth, she casts her irons in the fires and we feel the heat as her words burn away. Her poetry is alive and lucid, a kind of Plutonic medicine that dances into our soul; an intimate waltz with death, loss, transformation and rebirth. Her poems should carry a warning label: Read at your...
